THE SENIOR CLASS OF

NORTH BROOK HIGH SCHOOL

Route 1, Cherryville, North Carolina

1955

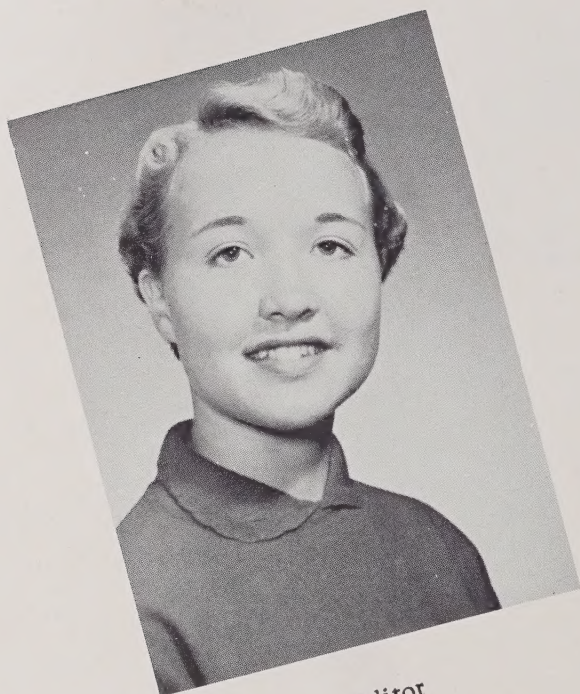

As we, the Seniors of '55, prepare to step into the future, we wish to leave in this volume of LE SOUVENIR a picture of our senior year at North Brook.

To those who have made the pages memorable ones--our parents, our teachers, and friends--we give our thanks.

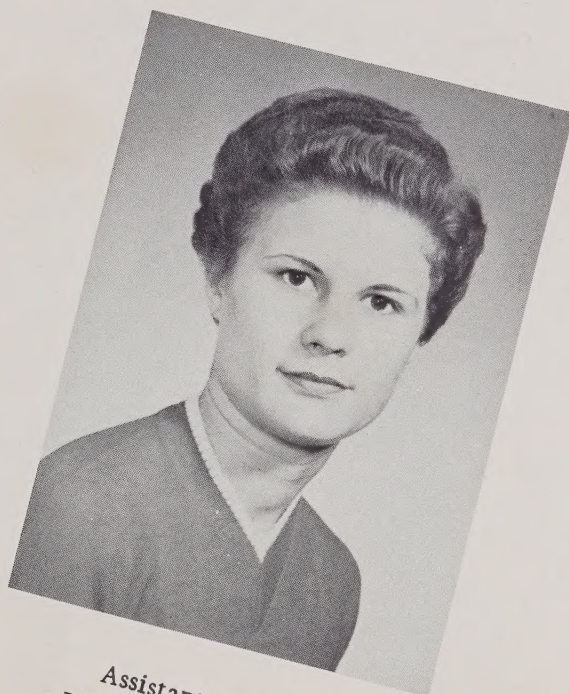

Through the years your friendship and guidance have been inspiring. By your genuine interest, our education has been broadened. Therefore, we, the class of 1955, in dedicating this the sixteenth volume of the LE SOUVENIR, believe wholeheartedly that this honor belongs to you, Miss Geymont.

Class History

It was the middle of July, 1950, a calm, peaceful, Summer day, radiant with the sunshine of hope, cheer, and joyous promise, that the good ship, North Brook High School, stood at anchor at the wharf of a new year. It was the same old ship that had carried many passengers to safe harbor in the Land of Great Wisdom. So with sixty aboard, the ship set sail for the Fountain of Perfect Understanding. As the ship stood at anchor on that eventful morning of July, the passengers began to arrive. We were naturally very enthusiastic and asked many eager questions of our Captain. As to the incidents of our voyage, and its probable length, if we were persevering and diligent in our duties, we should easily reach our destination at the end of four years. The first year of our journey was completed successfully with exception of a few passengers who were left at sea.

It would take too long to read the complete log of our voyage. It would be very interesting to tell the many delightful experiences, the many wonderful lessons, the changes in the list at the various ports along the way, and the landing of the twenty-six who still remain together at Commencement Wharf. We must not divulge the secrets of our shipmates. We must not forget the loyalty due to our class colors, Red and Silver, so valiantly flying at the masthead.

It has been a most wonderful voyage, and we have accumulated many souvenirs from every port, striving, however, to guard against the danger of excess baggage, and of taking unto ourselves anything which would not be of service to us on the yet greater voyage of Real Life upon which we are this day to embark.

We shall go on writing new logs of greater adventure, and yet more wonderful discovery, for while the Voyage of High School Life is at its end, the voyage of Real Life is just beginning.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of North Brook High School, realizing that our work is almost over, and being of a sound mind and body, do make and declare this our last will and Testament.

To our Parents, for affection, care and faithful trust, we leave our eternal love and gratitude, with the hope that our lives may be successful as their fondest dreams could have them be.

To Mrs. Parker, we leave our heartfelt thanks for her patience and guidance during our senior year.

I, Sarah Abernathy, will my title as most popular to Betty Hull.

I, Janice Bumgarner, will my position as Editor of the Babbling Brook to Guynell Parker.

I, Peggy Boyles, just leave.

I, Jean Canipe, leave my athletic ability to Helen Morrison.

I, Eulala Sain, leave my cute ways to Betty Bumgarner.

I, Nancy Rainey, leave my nice personality to Marlene Warlick.

To Nell Willis, I, Annie Warlick, will my position as Class Historian.

I, Nadean Powell, will to Helen Morrison my shorthand book and hope that she will use more than I did.

I, Dolly Wise, will to Louise Wise my position as Proof Reader on the Babbling Brook Staff.

To Evelyn Brackett, I, Nellie Leatherman, leave my smiles.

I, Sara Hembree, refuse to leave anything because I need everything I have.

To Mary Frances Walker, I, Shirley McSwain, will my position as typist of the Annual Staff.

To Nancy Jean McMillan, I, Beth Beam, will my position as Manager on the Basketball team.

I, Lessy Sain, will to Kathryn Miller my title as Captain of the Basketball team.

To Ruth Willis, I, Shirley Goodman, will my title as best all around.

I, Doris Leonhardt, will to Linda Bess my beautiful figure.

I, Harold Towery, leave my athletic ability to Harold Hull.

I, Carrol Taylor, will my popularity to Arnold Leonhardt.

To Robert Baxter, I, Clyde Taylor, leave my handsome looks.

I, Junior Willis, leave my ability to speak for my feelings to Junior Queen.

I, Junior King, leave my wit to Joe Willis.

To Larry Smith and Jimmy Howell, I, Coy Ray Beam, leave my job in the concession stand.

I, Gene Lingerfelt, will to Arnold Leonhardt my title Friendliest.

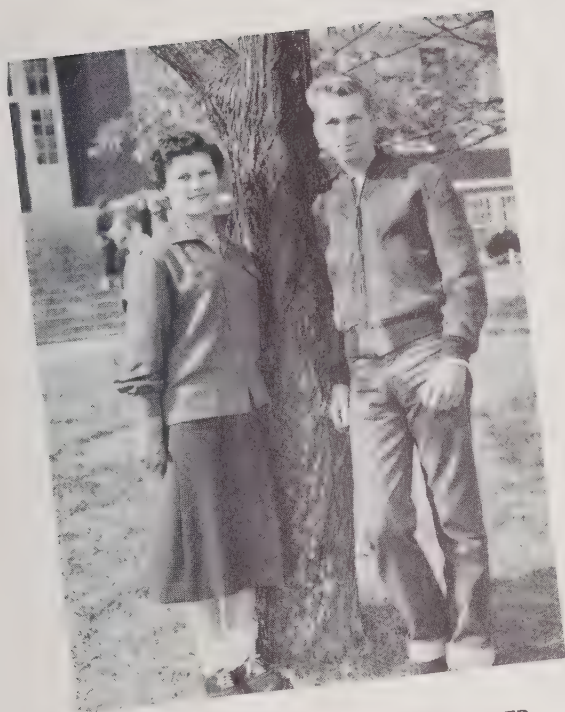

To Hubert Wright, I, Larry Sain, will my title as best all around.

I, Carrol Lingerfelt, will to Carrol Miller my title as Most Likely To Succeed.

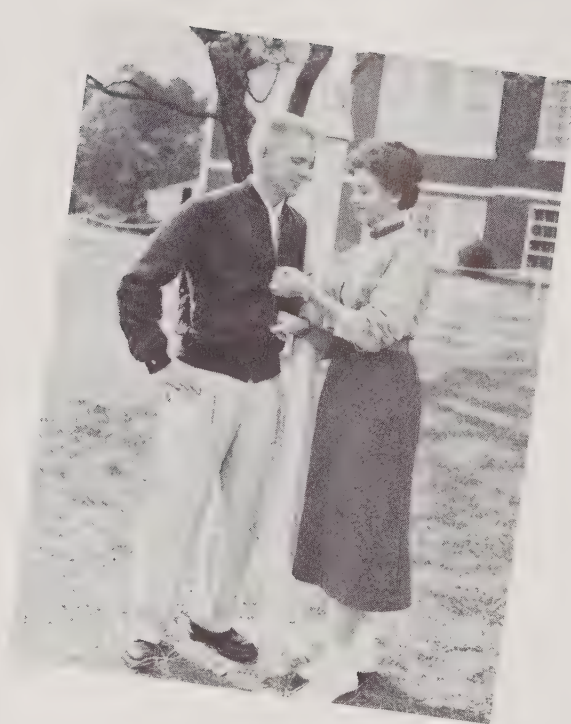

I, James Wise, will to Carrol Miller my quietness.

This being the last will and testament of the Senior Class of 1955, we do hereby appoint our Principal, Mr. Norris Childers, as the sole executor of this, our last will and testament.

North Brook girls have enjoyed a successful year of basketball.

The success of the team is due to the cooperation and splendid all-around play of the entire basketball squad. No individual player can be singled out for praise.

North Brook, for the third year in a row, has been champion of the Little Ten Conference.

Graduation will take away the following girls who served well on the court: Lessy Sain, Peggy Boyles, Jean Canipe, Nadean Powell, and Eulala Sain. However, their spirit and loyalty remains to carry on with the future teams.
